No. CV-25-00303-PHX-KML

ORDER

15 On December 20, 2025, plaintiffs filed their complaint in the Northern District of 16 California. Plaintiffs then waited a little more than three weeks to file their ex parte motion
17 for a temporary restraining order. (Doc. 6.) On January 15, 2025, the Northern District of 18 California ordered plaintiffs to serve the motion. That order also required defendants file a
19 response by January 17, 2025, which defendants did. (Docs. 10, 14.)

20 The Northern District held a hearing on January 22, 2025, and ordered the case
21 transferred to the District of Arizona. The Northern District ruled defendants had “waived
22 the right to enforce” a forum selection clause found in the governing agreement. (Doc. 19
23 at 6.) The case was not docketed in the District of Arizona until January 30, 2025.
24 (Doc. 20.)

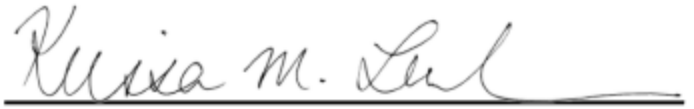

25 Plaintiffs initially filed in an improper venue where personal jurisdiction was 26 lacking, which resulted in defendants devoting much of their briefing to issues of 27 jurisdiction and venue. Examining the claims and alleged harms, obtaining full briefing on 28 the merits is appropriate. Defendants must file a renewed opposition and plaintiffs must

1 file a reply.

2 Accordingly,

3 IT IS ORDERED no later than February 6, 2025, defendants shall file a revised
4 response to the motion for temporary restraining focusing on the merits of plaintiffs'
5 request. Defendants should also address whether the forum selection clause remains
6 relevant. Plaintiffs shall file a reply no later than February 10, 2025.

7 Dated this 31st day of January, 2025.
